Payment Reductions

For your payment, you may be able to reduce the Total Balance by claiming certain adjustments listed below. Check only the boxes that apply to your account.

- I am receiving additional financial aid this semester which is not on the statement.
- I do not wish to contribute to NJPIRG, and my payment has been reduced by the NJPIRG fee in the Payment Adjustments box, below. For more information, please visit the NJPIRG website.
- I have enrolled in the Rutgers Tuition Payment Plan, but half of my budget does not cover my semester charges. I am paying the balance owed.
- I will receive a payment from a third party (external scholarship or company billing).
- I will be receiving Rutgers Remission for T.A.'s, G.A.'s, fellows, staff or dependent child, so I have subtracted my remission benefit from my balance due.

Payment Options

Pay Online By Electronic Check

You may pay by e-check, which is an electronic withdrawal from your checking or savings bank account. No additional fee is charged for the e-check, unless the electronic payment is returned as unpaid from your bank to the university. If your e-check is returned as unpaid from the bank, a $60.00 returned payment fee is assessed. The $60 fee consists of a $50 administrative fee and a $10 returned check charge assessed by our payment processor when a payment fails. You may also be assessed additional late fees if you fail to make payment by the due date indicated on your student statement of account.

Pay Online By Credit Card

MasterCard, Visa, American Express and Discover Card may be used to pay tuition and fees online. A service fee will be assessed to your credit card for this convenience. In-person credit card payments are no longer accepted by the Cashier's Offices at the University.
